Key Events of The Gunpowder Plot

- In 1605 King James I (a Protestant) was the King of England. However, some people did not like him because Catholics were treated unfairly.
- A man called Guy Fawkes and his friends (who were all Catholic) wanted King James to be removed from the throne and plotted to blow up the Houses of Parliament with the King and his government inside. They decided to use gunpowder to blow up underneath the King's chair. Their plan was to cause an enormous explosion! Thirty six barrels of gunpowder were put in the cellars of the Houses of Parliament on the 5th of November 1605.
- But, the plan did not work! A letter was sent to Lord Monteagle, who was due to go to the Houses of Parliament, warning him about the plot. He told the king, who sent guards to search the cellars. They found Guy Fawkes and gunpowder.
- Guy Fawkes and his friends were put in prison until he confessed to trying to blow up the Houses of Parliament, the King and his government. Guy Fawkes was executed!
- The King decided that on the 5th of November every year from that day we would remember the Gunpowder Plot and how Guy Fawkes' plan failed! Every year we burn bonfires and put a model of Guy Fawkes on top. We light fireworks and sparklers and celebrate the failure of the Gunpowder Plot.
